Asian American Unity Coalition (AAUC)

CONSTITUTION

Draft Version 1.6
September 2019
CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I
NAME

The name of this organization shall be the Asian American Unity Coalition, the acronym for which shall be “AAUC”.

ARTICLE II
PURPOSE

The AAUC is a non-sectarian, non-political, nonpartisan, non-profit and secular organization engaged in gaining EQUAL CITIZENSHIP for all ASIAN AMERICANS and PACIFIC ISLANDERS (AAPI) TO ACHIEVE THEIR AMERICAN DREAMS by FORGING UNITY among all AAPI organizations to be UNITED AND EMPOWERED TO SPEAK WITH ONE VOICE. This coalition will mainly consist of national and regional AAPI Organizations from over thirty ethnically distinct groups from Asia and other Pacific regions as recognized by the United States Bureau of the Census.

The primary purpose of AAUC is to forge unity among a diverse group of multi-cultural AAPI national and regional organizations to develop civic leadership, build political clout, fight against racial bias, and achieve equality for the AAPI community in the USA.

The Coalition is an Advocacy Group to promote the best interests of the AAPI Communities.

ARTICLE III
OBJECTIVES

The objectives of AAUC shall be:

Section 1: To CONNECT, COORDINATE, COLLABORATE, CONTRIBUTE, UNITE and EMPOWER: create an interactive and collaborative platform among the diverse components of the AAPI community to build trust and unity.
Section 2: To build trust and unity by participating and supporting the signature activities of member organizations and leveraging their strength to benefit other members.

Section 3: To choose issues that affect the majority of AAPI from among the issues compiled by the standing committee as suggested by various ethnic organizations. The issue(s) chosen must have relevance to living conditions of AAPIs in USA. The Coalition shall stay away from individual complaints.

Section 3: To choose issues that may have importance at various levels of governments: local, state and/or national.

Section 4: To encourage all ethnicities to interact/unite with each other on a common cause issue or in a bilateral/trilateral/multilateral issue and to build trust in the process.

Section 5: To provide political education and leadership training as an enabling tool for the rise of all AAPI to SPEAK WITH ONE VOICE at the local, state and national levels.

Section 6: To promote unity, equal access to education, to work place, to political offices, and empower the AAPI Communities for upward mobility.

Section 7: To establish a working relationship with various levels of governments: local, state and/or national, to show the strength and unity of the AAPI community, and to raise the awareness and support major AAPI issues and events starting in the year 2020 and beyond.

ARTICLE IV
ORGANIZATIONAL POLICIES

Section 1: AAUC shall welcome any AAPI organization that has a written constitution and bylaws that supports the purpose statement of the AAUC and qualified under the criteria established by the Board of Governors for membership.

Section 2: No part of the net earnings of the AAUC shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, officers or any other private persons except that the AAUC shall be authorized and empowered in accordance with its bylaws Article VII, sec 2, to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of Section 501(c)(3) purposes.

Section 3: AAUC shall be organized to conduct activities of interest common to its members and shall expend its funds appropriately for that purpose.
Section 4: AAUC shall be organized under a General Body (GB) of paid and eligible voting members defined under Article V.

Section 5: The Board of Governors (BOG) will be comprised of multiple ethnicities with at least one representative from each ethnic membership voted and approved by the General Body. Its Executive Committee (EC) voted by the Board of Governors will be the administrative arm of the Board of Governors.

ARTICLE V
MEMBERSHIP

Section 1: Membership

1.1 There are three membership classifications in AAUC: National, Regional/local AAPI organizations and Individual membership. Organizations satisfying Article IV Section 1 and submit an application with annual membership dues paid to AAUC shall be reviewed and be considered for AAUC organization membership. Individual membership is granted by the EC and approved by the BOG on a case by case basis. Individuals may be admitted to the Coalition if they become Life Members. Membership dues are based on each fiscal year, which starts on 1 January and ends on 31 December, prorated by month if join after the start of the year. Membership shall be granted by a majority vote of the Board of Governors (BOG).

Section 2: Classifications of Membership

2.1 National Organization Membership: Any national AAPI organization with multiple local chapters that agrees to abide by the goals and objectives of AAUC, may become a National Organization Member by submitting an application and paying the annual membership dues. The chief executive of the organization or its authorized representative is eligible to be elected by the GB as a member of the Board of Governors representing the ethnicity of the AAUC member organization and eligible to be elected for an office in the Executive committee. This is based upon the organization maintaining good standing during the last twelve (12) months immediately prior to the election, which means the organization is an active member and pays timely, yearly or lifetime dues.

2.2 Regional/Local Organization Membership: Any regional/local AAPI organization with membership from a single state or region that is in accord with the principles, policies and objectives of AAUC may become a Regional/Local Organization Member by submitting an application and paying the annual/lifetime membership dues as applicable. The chief executive of the organization or its authorized representative is eligible to be elected by the GB as a member of the Board of Governors representing the ethnicity of the AAUC member organization and eligible to be elected for an office in the Executive committee. This is based upon the organization maintaining good standing during the last twelve (12) months immediately prior to the election, which means the organization is an active member and pays timely, yearly or lifetime dues.

2.3 Individual Lifetime Membership: Any individual who is in accord with the principles, policies and objectives of AAUC may become individual Life Member to be vetted by the Executive committee. Individual Life Member who is current with his/her dues can run for an office of the Executive Committee, if a national member association nominate that person. They also can be elected to the Board of Governors representing their ethnic community if selected by the Board Development Committee and approved by the Board of Governors.

2.3.1 Individual membership should not exceed 20% of the total AAUC membership; not to exceed 20% of BOG nor 20% of EC.

Section 3: Membership Rights

Section 3.1: The National and Regional/Local Organization (NRLO) members will have all the rights and privileges including nomination and seek election as Members of the Board of Governors (BOG), Officers in the Executive Committee (EC) or Auditor.

Section 3.2: The Individual members will have all the rights and privileges. Individual Life Member who is current with his/her dues can run for an office of the Executive Committee, if a national member association nominate that person.
